

December 2013

Dear Students,

As some of you may know, we established a mock calendar in order to offer our students the possibility of doing a practice exam under exam conditions, followed by the results and advice in 10 days time about whether to register for the next available exam or to wait.

In order to follow a logical calendar, we have taken into account the dates for the Paper Based established for March, that is why we begin with the mocks for the First, Advanced and Proficiency in December.

The venue for the general mock in December and January will be confirmed near the date of the mock. We will send you an email with the venue. If you want to register to do the mock, please confirm as soon as possible or before the last day to register.

We also have grammar books and Exam Trainers with tests for you to practise at home available for loan in our Puentezuelas office.
