

Authorised Exam Centre
Official Examination Centre No: ES815

PET – READING PART 6 – The Traveller

For each question write the correct answer:

Write one word for each gap.

IHR IKAVELLER	THE	TR	AVEI	LER
---------------	-----	----	------	-----

Wandering 1 Lucca, Italy is like stepping back in time. Narrow streets and houses with orange-red roofs are surrounded 2 mountains and green fields. In spring the meadows are full 3 brightly coloured wild flowers.
Perhaps the best view of 4 ancient city, and the nearby countryside, is found 5 walking around the top of the medieval city walls. Still in excellent condition, they are a lovely place to walk, shaded by trees. Or enjoy the sunshine by strolling through the beautiful seventeenth-century gardens of the Parco Villa Reale. If you're lucky 6 to visit on the third weekend of the month, don't miss the fascinating antique market, selling silver 7 brass, furniture and rare books.
Fancy a picnic? Stop 8 at Forno A Vapore Amedeo Giusti for home-made sandwiches, made with tasty local produce. Or sit 9 at Vineria I Santi and watch the world go by 10 you eat a variety of delicious snacks.

CL GRANADA, S. L. C/ Puentezuelas, nº 32, 1ª Planta - 18002 Granada. Teléf.: 958 53 52 53 Fax: 958 25 15 46 E-mail: info@clgranada.com Web: www.clgranada.com

Adapted from Navigate B1+ Oxford Press Rev: 19/10-01-19

Authorised Exam Centre
Official Examination Centre No: ES815

Answers

THE TRAVELLER

Wandering 1. through/around Lucca, Italy is like stepping back in time. Narrow streets and houses with orange-red roofs are surrounded 2. by mountains and green fields. In spring the meadows are full 3. of brightly coloured wild flowers.

Perhaps the best view of 4.the ancient city, and the nearby countryside, is found 5.by walking around the top of the medieval city walls. Still in excellent condition, they are a lovely place to walk, shaded by trees. Or enjoy the sunshine by strolling through the beautiful seventeenth-century gardens of the Parco Villa Reale. If you're lucky 6.enough to visit on the third weekend of the month, don't miss the fascinating antique market, selling silver 7.and brass, furniture and rare books.

Fancy a picnic? Stop 8.off at Forno A Vapore Amedeo Giusti for home-made sandwiches, made with tasty local produce. Or sit 9.outside at Vineria I Santi and watch the world go by 10.while you eat a variety of delicious snacks.

CL GRANADA, S. L. C/ Puentezuelas, no 32, 1ª Planta - 18002 Granada. Teléf.: 958 53 52 53 Fax: 958 25 15 46 E-mail: info@clgranada.com Web: www.clgranada.com

Adapted from Navigate B1+ Oxford Press Rev: 19/10-01-19