

Proficiency – vocabulary – Love

Choose a word from the box and put it into its correct sentence.

| | | | | |
|------------|-----------|--------------|-------------|--------|
| Partners | platonic | flirtation | infatuation | mature |
| Compatible | one-sided | hero worship | | |
| Mutual | idolize | complement | stable | |

1. Teens and young adults often _____ film stars, athletes, and celebrities.
2. This is a kind of blind, devoted _____, where such people are regarded as gods by their smitten fanatics.
3. Young people also sometimes develop irrational obsessions for others, these feelings are not an adult _____ reaction.
4. They are usually simply a youthful _____.
5. At parties people may playfully tried to attract and others attention, or vice versa, without intending any serious, long lasting relationship, a simple _____.
6. Whereas a relationship gives a deep and lasting happiness for both _____.
7. A healthy relationship can never be considered _____ where only one of the couple benefits.
8. They should always be based on _____ respect and understanding felt equally by both.
9. Love can take many forms. It might entail no physical desire, in which case it is described as _____.
10. Certainly, for any relationship to be _____, both members must share certain qualities.
11. The two people involved must be _____ (they must get on well together).
12. It doesn't mean that they have to have common interests. A difference in character can show how two people can _____ each other.

ANSWERS

1. Idolize
2. Hero worship
3. Mature
4. Infatuation
5. Flirtation
6. Partners
7. One-sided
8. Mutual
9. Platonic
10. Stable
11. Compatible
12. Complement