

Kim's night

The clock pointed at 7 o'clock at Christmas Eve. Kim was looking forward to see the lights of the huge Christmas tree of her garden.

Three hours later, her family came and all of them were astonished with the Christmas tree.

-Oh! Look at my Christmas tree! -said Kim.

-Yes, it is very big, and illuminated, can you see the details? -her grandma said.

Kim, excited, went out to the garden to see the Christmas tree. Suddenly, she realized that there was a hidden door in it. She tried to open it but she couldn't.

So, Kim started to shout: "Family, come here quickly!"

The family, scared, left the house immediately and went where Kim was. Everyone tried to open it but they couldn't.

-I have an idea! Let us try altogether! -said grandma.

Unexpectedly, the door opened and a magic Christmas world appeared. They couldn't believe what was happening and they decided to go inside.

They were an unforgettable Christmas, and they discovered the true essence of this festivity; "Your family is the best team".
