

DO YOU KNOW ANY IDIOMS CONNECTED TO BOOKS AND READING?

Here you'll find a selection, can you match the idiom to its meaning?

1. If you can read someone like a book ,...	a) They falsify the accounts of a company.
2. If someone or something is an open book ....	b) You read in more detail to find the implied meaning of something.
3. If you are in someone's good (or bad) books ,...	c) You know them really well and know how they feel, how they will act.
4. When you read between the lines , ...	d) You decide to change your behaviour for the better.
5. If you take a leaf out of someone else's book ,....	e) We mustn't base our opinions on first appearances
6. If someone cooks the books ,...	f) You imitate a (usually) good quality that someone else possesses
7. If you turn over a new leaf ,...	g) They (or it) are easy to understand and you know a lot about them.
8. If you take something as read	h) You're in favour (or out of!) with someone
9. You can't judge a book by its cover	i) You assume it is true without further discussion.

IDIOMS ANSWERS:

1. c
2. g
3. h
4. b
5. f
6. a
7. d
8. i
9. e